Charollais Worcester Saucy Sale Worcester Market, Saturday 4th October

A top-quality show ewe lamb from Mr Robert Gregory's Edstaston Flock near Shrewsbury topped the annual Worcester Saucy Sale of Charollais females at the weekend. The lamb was knocked down for 1,700 gns to Mr David Roberts from Kenley in Shropshire. The lamb was sired by the 6,500 gns Dalby Malachite out of a Glyn Coch ewe.

Next best was an in-lamb shearling ewe from Mr Adrian Davies from Carmarthen. Her dam was the Supreme Interbreed champion from this year's Royal Welsh Show and her sire Dudston Monty. She was carrying a single to a home-bred sire, Glyn Coch Night to Remember. Taking this one at 1,500 gns was Mr Justin Evans from the Vale of Glamorgan.

The Ingram family from Aberdeenshire had their usual strong consignment of in-lamb shearling ewes. Their top was 1,000 gns for a very well-bred gimmer out of Dalby Hyacinth by Rockvilla Golden Promise. She was in lamb to Logie Durno Officer, the Interbreed champion ram lamb at the 2014 Royal Welsh Show. The ewe's top 5% performance figures were also the attraction to her buyer, Mr Scott Horton from Buckinghamshire. Not far behind at 950 gns was another Loanhead gimmer this time by Rutland Humdinger and also with the added attraction of being in lamb to Logie Durno Officer. Mr E J Taylor from Leamington Spa for his Little Dassett flock was her buyer.

Drew and Stephen Cowan were well-rewarded for their long trip over the water from Northern Ireland, with in-lamb shearlings selling to 980 gns and 800 gns for daughters of Castellau Millionaire. The Tullyear ewes sold to Ben Gingham also from Northern Ireland the other to P J Smith from Somerset.
